Aaditya,

We are conducting our due diligence as putative class counsel in the lawsuit. My co-counsel, Patricia Kakalec, is out of the office this week. We'll try to get back to you next week.

In the meantime, please let us know: (1) the reasons for the requested withdrawal; (2) the steps you will take to ensure these individuals' claims are not time-barred under the applicable statutes of limitations if they withdraw from the current lawsuit; (3) any legal action you have brought or intend to bring on behalf of the clients against any of the Defendants in our case, including the venue for the legal action; and (4) any settlement or other resolution of the clients' claims you have entered or expect to enter on the clients' behalf.

Thank you.

This email is a follow up to previous one. I am writing to ask for your confirmation, firstly regarding your procedure to file in the court for my client's withdrawal from the civil complaint as plaintiffs and second for your withdrawal as attorneys for my clients.

Kindly confirm that you have started the procedure for both of these as instructed by my clients.

In case the procedure has not yet been completed for either of the above, kindly let me know the modality you shall follow and the timeline in withdrawing my clients as plaintiffs from the Class Action Complaint and your Dismissal as attorneys with prejudice, so that I may confirm to my clients that their wish for both of these instructions have been carried out completely or shall be completed as soon as possible.

Please note that any communication with my clients regarding the civil complaint needs to be with my permission.

Thank you.

We are in receipt of your message, but have a number of questions. When would you be available to speak by phone?

Also, please forward the original versions of the letters that you state were prepared and signed in Hindi.

Thank you.
